■ Magnificent Reunions

Each year, DuPage proudly hosts a significant number of military reunions. DuPage County's central location, accessibility and value make it the perfect location for reunion attendees converging from all over the country.

■ Magnificent Location

Ideally located in the western suburbs of Chicago, DuPage County is convenient and affordable, with an abundance of places to meet, things to do, and people eager to make your time here extraordinary.

Within a day's drive of half the nation's population, DuPage County boasts one of the finest interstate systems in the country, and offers quick, hassle-free access to downtown Chicago via three commuter rail lines.

What's more, DuPage is convenient to both O'Hare and Midway International Airports, with our own DuPage Airport offering corporate, commuter and charter travel service.

■ Magnificent Hotels

With over 16,000 guest rooms, DuPage County's 115+ hotels and resorts consistently offer high levels of the luxurious comfort, service and convenience you'd expect from a premier Chicago property, yet remain amazingly affordable, with low taxes and plenty of free parking.

■ Magnificent Diversions

Let us tailor the perfect tour for your group. From points of interest to delectable dining and world-class shopping — when it comes to great military reunions, you can count on a mission accomplished in DuPage County.

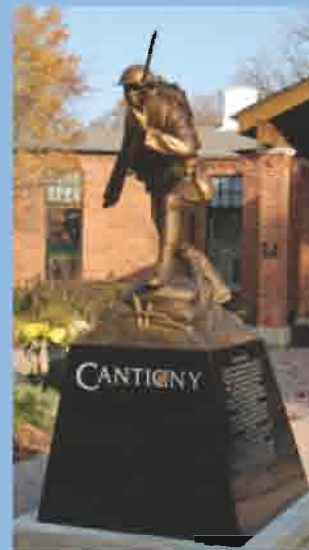

You won't want to miss the First Division Museum or the new Freedom Hall in the Robert R. McCormick Museum at Cantigny Park in Wheaton.

Within a short drive are the Great Lakes Naval Training Center and Glenview Hangar One Foundation Memorial Park.

Plan to visit the new Memorial Water Wall, a Veterans memorial at Chicago's Soldier Field, and Navy Pier, a former Navy training center, that is now a hub of entertainment, activity and fun.

You'll also want to squeeze in some time for the host of other things to see and do in DuPage:

- The breathtaking Morton Arboretum
- World-famous Brookfield Zoo
- Award-winning Lynfred Winery
- Broadway-style Drury Lane Theatre
- Our many and varied museums and cultural exhibitions
